DID YOU KNOW?

A legendary singer with big-time popularity, Patsy Cline died in a plane crash in 1963, merely 30 years after her birth in Winchester. The first solo female singer to become a member of the Grand Ole Opry and the first woman inducted in the Country Music Hall of Fame, Cline’s presence can be found throughout her birthplace, at her home, the “Becoming Patsy Cline” exhibition and her gravesite.

PET-FRIENDLY

Enjoy the lap of luxury and canine companionship, too, at the historic Blackburn Inn in Staunton. Special dog-friendly rooms have a first-floor entrance opening directly outside. The Inn offers doggie waste bags, bowls, treats and beds. roam the walking paths on the property’s 80 acres or venture over to Staunton’s pet-friendly attractions. When you’re worn out the pup, you’ll enjoy the room’s plush bath towels, luxury bed linens, large-screen TV and rainfall shower.

PET-FRIENDLY

“Inspired by our European heritage, the authentic Timber Frames of Shadow Mountain Escape proudly provide a “touch of traditional Europe” in the Shenandoah Valley. Coupled with the unique, quality-oriented businesses along the Blue Ridge Whisky Wine Loop, visitors from all over enjoy a world-class travel itinerary of outdoor adventures, fine wine and spirits, culinary delights, historic old towns and unique lodging.” — Karen Riddle, Shadow Mountain Escape

ICONIC

“U-Pick” your own adventure through the Shenandoah Valley, where businesses know that hands-on provides half the fun! Wander through orchards and fields, plucking fruits and vegetables like apples and pumpkins – at the height of freshness. Tour a farm, pet goats, miniature horses and other friendly critters; navigate corn mazes; and celebrate at festivals. Or just drop by one of the many markets, where locally grown produce and homemade goodies have been stacked just for you. Whichever “u-pick,” you’ll make memories that last.

LEXINGTON | BUENA VISTA | ROCKBRIDGE VA
A Land Called Shenandoah

The Blue Ridge Mountains, home to Shenandoah National Park and Luray Caverns. More than 1,000 rooms, cabins galore, elegant B&B’s, and camp sites.

Canoing on the storied Shenandoah River, hiking, horseback riding, charming towns, historic sites, antiques, fairs and festivals, all with vistas of farmlands reaching for the mountain foothills.
Welcome to geology’s hall of fame.

Baseball has one. Rock and roll has one. And although it took millions of years, the earth has one, too. And with well-lit, well-paved walkways stretching throughout, you can easily stroll through rooms 10 stories high, marvel at the enormous columns and crystal-clear pools, and of course, hear the world’s largest musical instrument, the Great Stalacpipe Organ.

It’s time to discover the most cavernous caverns on the East Coast. It’s time to discover Luray.

For a free brochure, call (540) 746-6551 or visit us online at LurayCaverns.com.

With over 400 cabins to rent, each offering its own unique character, you can find the perfect, temporary home-away-from-home to meet all your adventure needs.
