The COASTAL VIRGINIA region begins just east of Richmond, meanders along Chesapeake Bay tributaries and ends along the beautiful coast of the Atlantic Ocean. Featuring historic icons, classic theme parks and beautiful shorelines, it’s the ideal destination for a classic family getaway, satisfying history buffs, thrill seekers and beach loungers alike!

DID YOU KNOW?
The accomplishments of Pharrell Williams reach as high as “a room without a roof”: musician, producer, entrepreneur and more. And Virginia Beach residents know that Williams treasures the city where he was born and raised, and that he supports what he values — as highlighted by the Something in the Water festival. The midday beachfront experience welcomes internationally acclaimed recording artists, providing epic entertainment while benefiting Virginia Beach.

NOTABLE NEIGHBORHOOD
You can bask in Phoebus entertainment and food, but don’t pass up the historical highlights of Hampton’s early beach resort and “liberty spot” for World War II soldiers. Tour Fort Monroe, located where the first Africans arrived in 1619, and which sheltered freedom seekers during the Civil War. Visit Hampton University, an HBCU founded in 1868. See the Emancipation Oak, where the Black community gathered in 1863 to hear the first Southern reading of the Emancipation Proclamation. Then pair your newfound knowledge with a pint from 1865 Brewing, a new history-themed brewery.

ICONIC
Three Virginia locations that played major roles in early American history lie within easy driving distance. Dubbed the Historic Triangle, Jamestown, Yorktown and Williamsburg showcase the first English settlement, the end of the Revolutionary War and the founding of a new nation. Each destination offers dynamic learning opportunities for all ages. Chat with historical interpreters, watch historically accurate demonstrations, taste true-to-the-times food and explore re-created living-history communities and interactive museums.

HIDDEN GEM
The Mikelaites family has welcomed guests to their pastoral land since 1987, when parents Joseph and Helene — “Jolene” — operated a nursery and garden center. Siblings Sandy, Brian and Cindy have since converted the property to Jolene Family Winery and vineyard. Choose from their vibrant whites, ruby rosé or robust reds, and then choose where to sip and savor: on The Veranda, in The Pines beside the placid lake, in The Greenhouse or in the comfortable tasting room.

BUCKET LIST
You won’t want to blow off the opportunity to take a whale-watching tour in Virginia Beach. These massive majestic mammals come to the Virginia shores in the winter months, when northern waters get too cold. Catch the acrobatic humpback whales in their natural habitat to see them blowing, breaching, rolling over, fluking and slapping the water. You might also spot bottlenose dolphins; harbor seals; harbor porpoises; fin, right and minke whales; and a variety of seabirds and waterfowl.

INSTAGRAM-WORTHY
Picture-worthy scenes at Lake Drummond in the Great Dismal Swamp National Wildlife Refuge inspire your soul and your camera. Here, untarnished stretches of forest habitats and marshes support a diversity of mammals, birds and butterflies. Picturesque bald cypress trees rise from the water on wide rippled bases, like pleated skirts, often with knobby “knees” jutting up beside them. Their quirky appearance summons thoughts of enchanted forests and of prehistoric swamps!

ASK A LOCAL
“I love Coastal Virginia so much because of the variety: ’7 Cities’ is not just a name! ... What I like most is that each city has its own identity and vibe. Beyond that, we have the beach, bay, rural, city ... a little bit of something for everyone!”— Jarrell Williams, Nomarama
Experience an Inspired Weekend in Hampton

Sea to Stars
MANY ATTRACTIONS. ONE LOW PRICE.
Hampton’s 410-year legacy as the city “First from the Sea, First to the Stars” is captured in this combination ticket that mixes history, adventure, water recreation and fun! Explore some of Hampton’s best attractions at one low price.

Hampton University Museum
HISTORY COMES TO LIFE.
Founded in 1868, the Hampton University Museum is America’s oldest African American museum. Located on the historic Hampton University campus that dates to the same year, the museum features more than 9,000 pieces of African American, traditional African, Native American, Native Hawaiian and Asian art.

Fort Monroe
REMEMBER AND REFLECT.
It is the site where the first Africans brought to English North America landed in 1619. During the Civil War, it became known as “Freedom’s Fortress” following the controversial Contraband Decision, prompting thousands of enslaved people to seek sanctuary within its walls. Today visitors from around the world come to this National Monument and walk in the footsteps of these courageous individuals.

Virginia Air & Space Science Center
REACH FOR THE STARS.
The visitor center for NASA Langley Research Center is a world-class facility featuring more than 100 “hands-on” exhibits that tell America’s exciting story of air and space exploration. See the Apollo 12 Command module, a Mars meteorite and even a three-billion-year-old moon rock.

Drinks and Dining
BRING YOUR APPETITE.
Ideally located on the edge of the Chesapeake Bay and Atlantic, it’s no surprise that Hampton is a haven for lovers of fresh-caught seafood and delectable Southern dining. Whether in Downtown, Phoebus, Fort Monroe, Coliseum Central or a hidden hot spot, you’ll find a dish to savor.

400 Years Forward
EXPLORE BLACK HERITAGE.
Experience the historic museums, sites, and monuments that illustrate the perseverance of the human spirit with The 400 Years Forward Heritage Tour, showcasing the rich Black heritage of Hampton, from the landing of the first Africans in America in 1619 to the flourishing campus of Hampton University, one of the nation’s oldest Historically Black Colleges.
